Two Alarm House Fire in Aldie

At approximately 6:30am Thursday, March 12th fire and rescue crews from Aldie, Leesburg, Hamilton, Philomont, Brambleton and Dulles South were dispatched to a house fire in the 22000 block of James Monroe Highway. Units arrived on scene to find significant fire showing from a single family home. All residents, including two canines had safely self-evacuated prior to the arrival of fire crews. Firefighters immediately began an aggressive fire attack and called for additional water supply resources due to the rural area of the incident.

A second alarm was initiated and resources from Leesburg, Purcellville, Moorefield responded. The bulk of the fire has been extinguished but crews remain on the fire ground, checking for remaining hot spots and conductive extensive overhaul operations.

The Loudoun County Fire Marshal's Office is on scene conducting an investigation.

The Virginia State Police and the Loudoun County Sheriff's Office are handling all traffic related matters.
